PRESS RELEASE

OPM Warns to Disregard Unofficial Information

Belmopan. May 28, 2020. 4:00 p.m.

The Office of the Prime Minister (OPM) hereby informs the public that the notes being circulated via social media and other channels purportedly from the National Oversight Committee are not official.

The public is advised to disregard the information as it is inaccurate and misleading. The official summary of the committee meeting and new measures will be presented by the Prime Minister via a virtual press conference on Friday, May 29th, at 10:00 a.m. This will be followed by an explanation of the amendments to the statutory instrument by the Attorney General on Saturday, May 30th, at 3:00 p.m. on the Ask the Experts webcast.

The Office of the Prime Minister reminds the public to rely on information being shared by official government sources.
